Program Description

Sponsored by North Penn Legal Services and the Wilkes-Barre Law & Library Association as part of the ongoing pro bono initiative for Luzerne County and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, this seminar offers a variety of useful information and training for legal practitioners on several different topics. No prior experience or knowledge is necessary for attending these topics.

Attendance of this program is free to any attorney who is willing to accept a pro bono referral from North Penn Legal Services over the next year, otherwise the cost is $15.00 per credit hour.

For any attorney attending both segment blocks of CLE courses, the total substantive CLE credit earned is two (2 1/2) substantive credits or three (3) substantive credits. For any attorney wishing to attend both parts of the program, but not willing to accept a pro bono referral, the cost is $37.50 or $45.00, respectively, made payable to North Penn Legal Services. Please note that the Training Seminar, "Consumer Rights Litigation Advocates Update," does not offer any CLE credit if you attend.
